A Pure Food Baking Powder.

The Democrat-Forum takes pleasure in advising its readers that, beginning with this issue, the advertising of another national advertiser will appear in its columns, viz: K. C. Baking Powder.

It is the policy of The Democrat-Forum to accept advertisements of food products of merit only. Investigations show that K. C. Baking Powder has been sold throughout the United States for over twenty years, and the steady increase in its consumption is due to its quality.

The manufacturers of K. C. Baking Powder have always worked in harmony with the pure food officials and have made an article which complies with all pure food laws. They claim it is made from the very best of materials obtainable, guarantee it to please you, or full purchase price refunded.

To satisfy ourselves, we purchased a can, tried it in our home, and the results were beyond our expectations. To lovers of good, wholesome biscuits and fine pastry we heartily recommend it.

An elaborate cook's book, containing many recipes to your liking is given free with every 25 cent can. See your grocer for full particulars.

A DELICIOUS
CHEW IS
"OLD KENTUCKY"

Made of the Choicest Selected
Burley Grown—World's Best Tobacco

RICH, MELLOW, LUSCIOUS

Nothing like a chew of first-class plug tobacco to put an edge on your appetite and give you all the rich, juicy satisfaction that nature puts into the tobacco leaf.

Old Kentucky has the fruity-sweet flavor of the choicest selected Burley leaf.

That leaf is the flawless product of modern tobacco-growing, selected, re-selected, examined leaf by leaf. Then it's hand-stemmed and made into luscious plugs, with the mellow flavor perfectly retained. And it's made with pure food exactness in one of the world's greatest plug factories.

When you're reveling in the rich, sweet, flavor of Old Kentucky, you're chewing the luscious result of the most modern methods of high-grade plug tobacco making.

Is any wonder that Old Kentucky is the most delicious chew on earth?

ROAD BUILDING

ROADS AS CROP PRODUCERS

Government Studies Show How Agricultural Outlook of Country Depends Upon Its Highways.

That an improved road will increase vastly the productivity of the area through which it runs has now been satisfactorily demonstrated by studies conducted by the United States department of agriculture in Virginia. Conditions in Spotsylvania county were investigated with particular care, and the results have proved surprising. In 1909 the county voted $100,000 to improve 40 miles of roads. Two years after the completion of this work the railroad took away in 12 months from Fredericksburg, the county seat, 71,900 tons of agricultural and forest products hauled over the highways to that town. Before the improvement of the roads this total was only 49,000 tons annually; in other words the quantity of the county's produce had risen more than 45 per cent. Still more interesting, however, is the increase shown in the quantity of the dairy products. In 1909 these amounted to 114,815 pounds, in 1911 to 273,328 pounds, an increase of practically 140 per cent in two years. In the same time shipments of wheat had increased 59 per cent, tobacco 31 per cent and lumber and other forest products 48 per cent.

In addition to this increase in quantity the cost of hauling each ton of produce was materially reduced. In other words the farmers not only produce more but produce more cheaply, for the cost of transportation to market is, of course, an important factor in the cost of production. From this point of view it is estimated that the $100,000 spent in improving the roads in Spotsylvania county saved the farmers of that county $41,000 a year.

In the past two years the traffic studies of the federal experts show that approximately an average of 65,000 tons of outgoing products were hauled over the improved roads in the county, an average distance of eight miles, or a total of 520,000 "ton-miles." Before the roads were improved it was estimated that the average cost of hauling was 20 cents a "ton-mile;" after the improvement this fell to 12 cents a "ton-mile," or a saving of eight cents. A saving of eight cents per mile on 520,000 "ton-miles" is $41,000 a year. The county's investment of $100,000, in other words, returns a dividend of 40 per cent annually.

Because this saving, in cases of this character, does not take the form of cash put directly into the farmers' pockets, there is a widespread tendency to believe that it is fictitious profit, while as a matter of fact it is just as well a source of profit as the increase in the price of wheat.

In Dinwiddie county, Virginia, for example, where peanuts is one of the staple crops, the average load for two mules on a main road was about one thousand pounds before the road was improved. After its improvement the average load was found to be 2,000 pounds, and the time consumed in hauling the larger load to market was much reduced. In other words, one man with a wagon and two mules could do more than twice as much work with the improved road than with an unimproved road. This is the explanation of the extraordinary rise in the total output of agricultural products in a county with a good road system.

Bad Roads Excepted.
There is an excuse for everything except bad roads.

Roads and the Schools.

Improved roads make it possible to consolidate or centralize schools, and to establish graded schools in the rural districts. Such schools, centrally located, will accommodate all of the children within a radius of from four to five miles.

New Road Machine.

In a new road-making machine the asphalt is heated as it is being mixed by flames from the fire box of the

RAVENWOOD MAKING CIDER P. O. REMOVAL OVERRULED

New Hydraulic Sanitary Press Made 1,100 Gallons in Eight Hours—
New to This Section.

W. H. Ralston & Son have installed a new hydraulic cider press at the rear of their harness shop, and are being kept busy grinding and pressing from morning until night. On Monday of this week they put the new machine to a test, and at the end of 8 hours work had manufactured a trifle over 1,100 gallons of cider. Mr. Ralston thinks that the machine with the aid of four men, is good for at least 1,500 gallons of cider in ten hours.

The new machine is attracting much attention. It is sanitary in every respect, which can hardly be said about the old fashioned cider presses. With this new machine they grind and squeeze, and squeeze and grind all at the same time.—Ravenwood Gazette.

President Wilson Orders Re-Instatement of Asst. P. M. Who Criticized His Approaching Marriage.

Special to the Democrat-Forum
Washington, Nov. 15.—President Wilson has ordered Postmaster General Burleson to reinstate George Burkitt as assistant postmaster at Winnetka, Ill.

Burkitt was removed by the post office department because he criticized President Wilson's early engagement. His removal was not ordered with authority or knowledge of the president.

Postmaster Kloepfer of Winnetka, according to published correspondence, called upon Burkitt to explain a remark credited to him, that the President should "wait at least a year before remarrying." Burkitt admitted making the statement in the course of a general conversation in the post office, but denied being guilty of any disrespect. Then the postmaster, charging him with disloyalty and calling attention to demerits placed against his record for "unsatisfactory service," asked for his resignation.

In appealing to the Postoffice Department, Burkitt protested that his removal had been irregular; that no formal charges had been filed against him, and that he had been given no opportunity of reply. Daniel C. Roper, third assistant postmaster general, is said to have replied that the civil service laws had been fully complied with.

FARM WAS MADE TO PAY.

Results of Good Management Shown in Michigan.

A significant instance of what proper methods of farm management can accomplish is afforded by a certain 500-acre farm in central Michigan. For 10 years this farm failed to pay interest on the capital invested. One year after the owners had been induced to make certain radical changes the farm paid all expenses of operation and returned them 5 per cent on an investment of $60,000. The changes which accomplished this financial revolution were as follows:

(1) Four-horse machinery was substituted for 2-horse.

(2) The unprofitable cows in the dairy herd were weeded out and sold and the money received for them invested in better stock.

(3) A silo was built.

(4) The foreman was allowed, in addition to his salary, 10 per cent of the net income from the farm. The expenses of operating the farm, but not the interest on the capital, were deducted from the income before the foreman received his percentage.

It was this last suggestion which met with the most opposition from the owners of the farm, but when it was pointed out to them that for every dollar the foreman got under such an arrangement they would get $9 they yielded.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Pope and children, Donald and Noma, of Skidmore visited the county seat today.

Mr. and Mrs. William Birkenholz and daughter, Miss Esta, were shopping in Maryville today.

Good Things in Fruit. Cranberry jelly is a good appetizer. Put a nicely baked Missouri apple in the dinner pail.

Raisins and dates make appetizing and nutritious filling for sandwiches.

A few dried raisins, figs, and dates stuffed with nuts are pleasant surprises when found in the school lunch.

Cinnamon rolls, containing raisins and currants, satisfy the natural craving for sweets and are better for children than cake.

Russian bread, made by adding eggs, a little sugar, shortening, raisins, currants and nuts if desired, to common bread dough, is excellent for sandwiches.

These brief suggestions are made by Miss Carrie Pancoast, a domestic science teacher of the College of Agriculture, University of Missouri.

Blue Ribbon.

The women of the Mothers' club of Pickering and the H. K. G. club of Mingo Valley believe that their third annual institute at Pickering Friday and Saturday was a real success in every way, and this opinion is concurred in by all those who attended.

The large exhibit placed in the M. E. church attracted a large crowd. One of the relics which attracted considerable interest was a silver button worn on a uniform in the revolutionary war. The H. K. G. club won the grand prize for the best exhibit.

The demonstrations by Miss Bab Bell, women's lecturer for the state board of agriculture, were attended by more than 125 women. Cake making, hot and cold beverages, ices and ice cream, salads and salad making were shown in the demonstration.

The school exhibit of room 2 was excellent and received much favorable comment. Miss Rachel Watson is the teacher of that room in the Pickering school. In the list of prizes which follows the name of the maker of the fancy work is given instead of the owner.

PRIMARY NO BLOCK

NOT STATE ELECTION, SAYS APPEALS COURT.

CASE ON EXACT POINT

Neosho Election Was Contested Because Held Near August Primary. Is "Nomination," Not Election.

The primary is not a state election within the meaning of the local option law. Such is the decision of the 139 Missouri appeals, 293, which bears on the exact question which was raised here last week.

It was feared that if the liquor election here was not held in February it could not be held until January, 1917, because the state primary will be held August 1. W. H. Crawford, city attorney, has found a decision which removes that fear.

The decision was made in August, and unless a ruling of the Missouri supreme court supersedes it before the election is held, will be the precedent for the legal arrangements of the election.

The case is Haas vs. the city of Neosho, and is a suit to throw out an election in which that city went dry because the election was held within sixty days of a primary. The court held that a primary was not an election, but a nomination, and that to be within the meaning of the terms of the local option law, the election must be for the purpose of electing men to offices.

The time for calling a mass meeting of the temperance forces to consider the best time for an election was discussed in the meetings of the brotherhoods of the churches yesterday morning.

When jumping from an embankment he alighted upon the stump of a large weed which penetrated and entirely pierced his foot. It is not known yet just how serious the wound will prove to be.

GOOD S. S. REPORT

MISS DAVIS WILL TELL ABOUT NODAWAY AT ST. LOUIS.

HAS ALL TEN POINTS

Requirements of State Association All Met—Polk Township Organized Yesterday.

Nodaway county enters the state Sunday school convention at St. Louis tomorrow with a clean record. Miss Eva Davis, secretary and delegate from this county, will take one of the best reports of any county with her when she leaves tonight.

The complete record was made possible by the organization of Polk township yesterday afternoon at the Buchanan Street Methodist church. All of the townships had become organized before but Polk township has been slow to make a township organization, although the best supporter of the county association of any township.

The Polk officers are: G. B. Roseberry, president; Ernest Wray, vice president; Ray Davis, secretary; D. E. Hotchkiss, treasurer; Miss Julia Denney, elementary superintendent; Miss Fannie Hope, secondary superintendent; Rev. R. C. Holliday, adult; Mrs. Al Heflin, home; Mrs. O. C. Hanna, missionary; W. W. Glass, temperance.

Nodaway Has All 10 Points.

When the name of Nodaway county is called in the convention at St. Louis, Miss Davis will report that we have all of the required ten points to make this a class A county. The ten points are: County organized and annual convention held, annual statistical report to state convention, annual contribution to state association, county represented at state convention, county organized by townships and regular meetings or institutes held, at least four department superintendents at work, 40 per cent of the schools with cradle rolls, 20 per cent with home departments, 10 per cent with registered teachers' training classes, 20 per cent of schools with teen-age or adult classes organized and with certificates.

Nodaway Sunday School Statistics.

The following statistics of the Sunday schools of Nodaway county is a part of the report: Enrollment, 7,241; cradle roll, 410; home, 168; teachers and officers, 860; grand total, 8,679.

Number of "Evergreen" schools that is, those not closing during the winter, 74; church accessions through the Sunday school, 470; number organized classes, 160 (but not all registered); mission departments, 2; temperance, 10; home departments, 15; training classes registered, 8; cradle roll schools, 32.

Miss Davis is the only Sunday school worker from this county who is expecting to attend the state convention, which will continue until Friday.

MISS BARMANN GOES TODAY

Will Spend Winter in Salvador Visiting Classmate—Leaves New Orleans for Guatemala in Steamer

Miss Ora Barmann will leave tonight for her trip to Central America. She will go to St. Louis over the Wabash, and from there to New Orleans. She will spend the winter with a schoolmate, Miss Hortense Sol, at San Salvador, with whom she was intimate while a student at Sacred Heart convent in St. Joseph.

Miss Ora has been disappointed by receiving word that she would not have an aunt of Miss Sol as company from New Orleans, as she had expected. Miss Sol and her father will meet Miss Barmann at the Guatemalan port, however. After a holiday season in San Salvador, the party will go to the county home of Mr. and Mrs. Sol at Santa Fecla, in Salvador, Central America.

IT WAS SLIGHTLY CHILLY

Minimum Was 20 Saturday and 17 Sunday—Highest 60 and 37 Yesterday—Not Much Rain.

Yes, it really has been cold. Perhaps that slight snow Saturday night added to the imagination and the odor of mothballs heightened the impatience of summer lovers at the ravages of winter.

But the official thermometer under the watchful eye of J. R. Brink, weather observer, confirmed the feeling that it was slightly chilly. Saturday the lowest was 20, and the mercury dropped to 17 degrees above yesterday.

Saturday it warmed up to 60, but the best Old Sol could do toward the uplift of the little column of liquid in the tube yesterday was up to 37 degrees. The snow and rain was almost negligible from an official observer's standpoint. With pedestrians it was different.

A Pure Food Baking Powder.

The Democrat-Forum takes pleasure in advising its readers that, beginning with this issue, the advertising of another national advertiser will appear in its columns, viz: K. C. Baking Powder.

It is the policy of The Democrat-Forum to accept advertisements of food products of merit only. Investigations show that K. C. Baking Powder has been sold throughout the United States for over twenty years, and the steady increase in its consumption is due to its quality.

The manufacturers of K. C. Baking Powder have always worked in harmony with the pure food officials and have made an article which complies with all pure food laws. They claim it is made from the very best of materials obtainable, guarantee it to please you, or full purchase price refunded.

To satisfy ourselves, we purchased a can, tried it in our home, and the results were beyond our expectations. To lovers of good, wholesome biscuits and fine pastry we heartily recommend it.

An elaborate cook's book, containing many recipes to your liking is given free with every 25 cent can. See your grocer for full particulars.

ROAD BUILDING

ROADS AS CROP PRODUCERS

Government Studies Show How Agricultural Outlook of Country Depends Upon Its Highways.

That an improved road will increase vastly the productivity of the area through which it runs has now been satisfactorily demonstrated by studies conducted by the United States department of agriculture in Virginia. Conditions in Spotsylvania county were investigated with particular care, and the results have proved surprising. In 1909 the county voted $100,000 to improve 40 miles of roads. Two years after the completion of this work the railroad took away in 12 months from Fredericksburg, the county seat, 71,900 tons of agricultural and forest products hauled over the highways to that town. Before the improvement of the roads this total was only 49,000 tons annually; in other words the value of the county's produce had risen more than 45 per cent. Still more interesting, however, is the increase shown in the quantity of the dairy products. In 1909 these amounted to 114,815 pounds, in 1911 to 273,328 pounds, an increase of practically 140 per cent in two years. In the same time shipments of wheat had increased 55 per cent, tobacco 31 per cent and lumber and other forest products 48 per cent.

In addition to this increase in quantity the cost of hauling each ton of produce was materially reduced. In other words the farmers not only produce more but produce more cheaply, for the cost of transportation to market is, of course, an important factor in the cost of production. From this point of view it is estimated that the $100,000 spent in improving the roads in Spotsylvania county saved the farmers of that county $41,000 a year.

In the past two years the traffic studies of the federal experts show that approximately an average of 65,000 tons of outgoing products were hauled over the improved roads in the county, an average distance of eight miles, or a total of 520,000 "ton-miles." Before the roads were improved it was estimated that the average cost of hauling was 20 cents a "ton-mile," after the improvement this

RAVENWOOD MAKING CIDER

New Hydraulic Sanitary Press Made 1,100 Gallons in Eight Hours—New to This Section.

W. H. Ralston & Son have installed a new hydraulic cider press at the rear of their harness shop, and are being kept busy grinding and pressing from morning until night. On Monday of this week they put the new machine to a test, and at the end of 8 hours work had manufactured a trifle over 1,100 gallons of cider. Mr. Ralston thinks that the machine with the aid of four men, is good for at least 1,500 gallons of cider in ten hours.

The new machine is attracting much attention. It is sanitary in every respect, which can hardly be said about the old fashioned cider presses. With this new machine they grind and squeeze, and squeeze and grind all at the same time.—Ravenwood Gazette.

P. O. REMOVAL OVERRULED

President Wilson Orders Re-Instatement of Asst. P. M. Who Criticized His Approaching Marriage.

Special to the Democrat-Forum Washington, Nov. 15.—President Wilson has ordered Postmaster General Burleson to reinstate George Burkitt as assistant postmaster at Winnetka, Ill.

Burkitt was removed by the post office department because he criticized President Wilson's early engagement. His removal was not ordered with authority or knowledge of the president.

Postmaster Kleepfer of Winnetka, according to published correspondence, called upon Burkitt to explain a remark credited to him, that the President should "wait at least a year before remarrying." Burkitt admitted making the statement in the course of a general conversation in the post office, but denied being guilty of any disrespect. Then the postmaster, charging him with disloyalty and calling attention to demerits placed against his record for "unsatisfactory service," asked for his resignation.

In appealing to the Postoffice Department, Burkitt protested that his removal had been irregular; that no formal charges had been filed against him, and that he had been given no opportunity of reply. Daniel C. Roper, third assistant postmaster general, is said to have replied that the civil service laws had been fully complied with.

FARM WAS MADE TO PAY.

Results of Good Management Shown in Michigan.

A significant instance of what proper methods of farm management can accomplish is afforded by a certain 500-acre farm in central Michigan. For 10 years this farm failed to pay interest on the capital invested. One year after the owners had been induced to make certain radical changes the farm paid all expenses of operation and returned them 5 per cent on an investment of $60,000. The changes which accomplished this financial revolution were as follows:

(1) Four-horse machinery was substituted for 2-horse.

(2) The unprofitable cows in the dairy herd were weeded out and sold and the money received for them invested in better stock.

(3) A silo was built.

(4) The foreman was allowed, in addition to his salary, 10 per cent of the net income from the farm. The expenses of operating the farm, but not the interest on the capital, were deducted from the income before the foreman received his percentage.

It was this last suggestion which met with the most opposition from the owners of the farm, but when it was pointed out to them that for every dollar the foreman got under such an arrangement they would get $9 they yielded.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Teason and Albert Sewell, who makes his home with them at their farm, southeast of Skidmore, were in Maryville today.
